

Friday, April 17, 2015 - Say a Prayer for Me...

You don't know me when we meet on the street,
My life could be different if we were to meet,
But you're always careful not to look in my eyes,
Instead I am left with all the world's lies.

I feel all alone, as if things can't get worse,
And with every breath, I find someone to curse,
No hope, no friends, my life is a sham,
I wish I could tell you how lonely I am

Where do I turn to get my life right,
There has to be more than the dark, lonely night
No matter how dark life appears to be,
I know that God must have a plan for me.

You are my hope of learning His Way,
Can't you see that I need it today?
Why do you wait to teach me His Word,
Without God my life's very blurred.

Look me in my eyes as if you care,
I don't have time, no more time to spare,
Teach me His Word that makes men free,
But before we start say a prayer for me...

No one needs to tell me I'm not a poet, I know. But I can't help but think how Christians relate to those we come in contact with every day. I know in my case I ASSUME way to much.

I make a decision, by how I treat them, whether they need/should hear the gospel. That is NOT my decision to make.

Matthew 28:19-20 - Go therefore and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all things that I have commanded you; and lo, I am with you always, even to the end of the age."
Amen.

But there is more that we, as Christians, can do before ever opening the sacred pages with others. Say a prayer.

Prayer is one of the greatest blessings that we have as a child of God. Prayer isn't something that we do carelessly because it is an element of the special relationship between God and His children.

It is a privilege and it should also be a priority. When we pray to God we are affirming our dependence upon him. When we pray we are enlisting, invoking, and inviting the Creator of the universe to assist us. However, prayer isn't always about us. We should spend time praying to God for others.

There a millions of people in this world that are hurting, lost, lonely and needing hope. Until we can reach them with God's Word, we have the opportunity to beseech God on their behalf. You don't have to see them or even know them.

Just say a prayer for them...
