I am ashamed of myself. I naively believed that a country less than 300 years removed from a foundation based upon a belief in the power, omniscient, omnipresence, love and goodness of Jehovah God would never completely ignore that which is so plainly taught in scripture: "And He answered and said, 'Have you not read that He who created them from the beginning MADE THEM MALE AND FEMALE, and said, 'FOR THIS REASON A MAN SHALL LEAVE HIS FATHER AND MOTHER AND BE JOINED TO HIS WIFE, AND THE TWO SHALL BECOME ONE FLESH ?' (Matt. 19:4-5).

Shame on me for believing in politicians who give lip service to their reverence for the Almighty God but show no backbone when given the opportunity to fight against a sin that participated in by less than 1% of the population in this country.

Shame on me for not spending more time in prayer to God asking for a return in this country to a love for Him equal to the love He showed/shows for us.

Regardless of the ignorance shown by the "Supreme" court regarding the subject of marriage, they will have NO effect on this Christian in regards to what I teach regarding the subject of marriage: Marriage is between a man and a woman, period. "We must obey God rather than men." (Acts 5:29)

Thomas Warren correctly reasoned in his book, "MARRIAGE IS FOR THOSE WHO LOVE GOD - AND ONE ANOTHER" the following: "The three basic obligations of every person are: to love God, to love his neighbor, and to love himself (Matt. 22: 34-40). Because love is so basic, no marriage can be truly great (ideal in God's sense of the term) unless the two people involved truly love God, each other, and themselves."

Those who engage in the sin of homosexuality, despite their words, DO NOT LOVE GOD! This applies to all sin for the Lord says, "If you love Me, you will keep My commandments" (John 14:5). NONE of the Lord's commandments lead us to sin!

Oh God, please help us to always stand strong in Your Word and teach Your Word despite the belief of those around us. Help us to be the lights in our world so that those who are swallowed up in sin can understand that You offer them the answer if they will but submit to Your will. Help our country to turn from the paths of sin and avoid the ways of others who allowed sexual depravity to inundate their society. In Christ's name, Amen
