

Friday, September, 25, 2015 - When God Calls Us Home

Christ tells us Heaven is the Father's house, with its many mansions, and is where He ascended to prepare a place for us (John 14:1-3; Acts 1:9-11; Luke 24:46-52.)

Jesus has promised us great reward in heaven (Matt. 5:12). We are pilgrims here, seeking another country which is heaven (Heb. 11:13-16) He tells us to lay up treasures in heaven, rather than upon this earth (Matt. 6: 19-21) because our reward is great in heaven (Luke 18: 23). He affirms that our names are written in heaven (Luke 10: 20) and our inheritance is reserved for us (1 Pet. 1: 4-5). Our hope is laid up for us in heaven (Col. 1:5) for He will wipe away every tear from our eyes, and death shall be no more, neither shall there be mourning, nor crying, nor pain anymore, for the former things have passed away (Rev.21:4).

But not all will dwell forever with the Lord. Only those who obey Jesus and do his commandments will have any right to go to heaven, and enter into that wonderful city (Rev. 22:14; Heb. 5:8-9; 1 John 2:3-4.) Heaven is a glorious and beautiful city. Yes, we shall all be happy, in that sweet bye and bye! There we shall love and live for ever and ever, and have everlasting life (Mark 10:30; 1 Tim. 5:12).
